Message from Dr. Malika Savoy- Brooks and Dr. Evelyn Nunez

Dear School District of Philadelphia Parents and Guardians:

We hope you and your families are staying well and healthy. The Office of Academic Supports and the Chief Schools Office are excited to announce its summer program offerings for 2020! We know that many of you rely on summer programming to ensure students continue to engage in learning, and to have an opportunity to build on the skills they've developed during the academic year. To that end, our programming has been redesigned to prevent learning loss, ensure continued academic enrichment for eligible students, promote successful transition in the critical years from middle school to high school, and facilitate post-secondary readiness.

Please use this electronic parent guide to find programs for your students. Linked below, summer programming is organized by grade and content to determine which offerings meet your child's eligibility and needs. Additional programming and resources may be added to this guide as they become available.

General Information for All Programs

- The district is committed to principles of equitable access for all children, and to this end is working to build capacity through technology, training, and supplemental resources for all students.
- Unless an alternative method is offered by the program, students will be expected to participate virtually in the programs offered and to use the technology available at home.
- Students participating in remote summer programs must adhere to the Student Code of Conduct. Bullying, cyberbullying and/or harassment of any type will not be tolerated.

Questions regarding any of the programs should be addressed to your child's principal or the contact information provided in the parent handbook.

Thank you, and we look forward to serving Philadelphia students this summer.

Malika Savoy- Brooks, Ed.D.
Chief Academic Officer

Evelyn Nunez, Ed.D.
